Arkansas State University

Scholarship for Minority Students in Media and Journalism

Arkansas State University and the William Randolph Hearst Foundation are committed to extending educational opportunities to all segments of our society. To that end, A-State, with financial support from the Hearst Foundation, has established the William Randolph Hearst Minority Scholarship in Media & Journalism.

Each year, two or more scholarships are offered. Minimum qualifications include:

1. Must be a member of a racial minority
2. Must be planning to enroll or be enrolled at Arkansas State University in a major in media, journalism or strategic communication (public relations or advertising)
3. Must be a high school graduate and have a GPA of 2.75 and an ACT composite score of 21 or better.

Each scholarship will pay a minimum of $250 per semester. A scholarship recipient who maintains a 2.50 GPA or better for all academic work may request the scholarship be renewed for up to eight semesters.

To complete this application you must:
